CRISS CROSS POKER RULES

- The game is played with a single 52-card deck.
- Players make two ante wagers of equal value - the “Ante Across” and “Ante Down” bets. The player may also place an optional “5-Card Bonus” bet.
- The dealer then deals five community cards face-down in a crossed formation.
- Players then receive two cards face-down. Players may examine their cards.
- Players may fold and forfeit all previous wagers, or make a “Down Bet” of 1x-3x the “Ante Across” bet.
- Dealer then turns over the two outside horizontal community cards.
- Players may fold or make a “Middle Bet” of 1x-3x the “Ante Down”.
- Dealer then turns the top and bottom community cards.
- Player may fold or make a “Middle Bet” of 1x-3x one of the original ante bets.
- Dealer then reveals the middle card
- Players then use their two cards with the three vertical community cards to form a “Down” hand.
- Winning “Across” and “Down” bets are paid according to the payable listed. The “Middle” bet is paid if either the “Across or “Down” hand qualify as a win and is paid at the odds of the highest ranking hand.
- The two ante bets are paid even money on a pair of Jacks or better and push on a pair of 6’s through 10’s.
- The 5 Card Bonus is based on the five community cards making the best five-card poker hand. Payouts are based on the payable listed.
